PARTICK THISTLE

We have been delighted with our relationship with O'Neills since they became our official kit supplier in 2019. From the design process right through to the kit being on our players' backs, every aspect of the process has a professionalism and an attention to detail that never fails to impress. The feedback from our players, staff and supporters around the quality of the kit has been unanimously positive. And despite dealing with a global pandemic, their delivery and service has been of the highest order. We look forward to working with O'Neills to help grow the brand throughout Scotland and at all levels of the beautiful game.
